Respected Prof. Matthew Kuofie

We have pleasure in informing you that Faculty of Management Studies, Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi (India), is going to organize an international conference on Strategic Management of Energy, Environment and Disasters for Sustainable Development (ICON-SMEEDS 2010) during January 11-15, 2010. We are expecting more than 500 participants in this international conference. It may be mentioned that Banaras Hindu University is one of the largest residential universities of the Asian subcontinent and is known for imparting quality education in various disciplines ranging from the traditional ones to the most modern ones.

Sir, in order to organize this international conference in a befitting manner we are including the top-notch brains from various countries in the advisory committee of the international conference. We are confident that you, with your long and dexterous experience will be helpful in the successful conduct of this international conference.

We are also confident that if a person of your stature figures in the advisory board of the international conference it will certainly increase the worth of this international conference.

In view of the above, we wish to have you as one of the members of the advisory board.

May I request you to kindly give your consent for the same and oblige us. An early reply will highly appreciated.

Regards,

Prof. S. K. Singh
Professor of Management
& Secretary General
